

U3A Hibiscus Coast Newsletter for July/August 2019

Next Meeting: Monday, 15 July
Silverdale RSA
11.30 am for Winter Warmer lunch at 12 pm.

From our president

What an exciting month we have this August to see us through the colder parts of the year. Having said that I have just enjoyed brunch in the sun opposite Orewa Beach with South Island friends of 25 years who were very impressed with the Hibiscus Coast. Yes we have a lot to be thankful for.

We have 90 tickets either sold or committed to for the 15th August " Winter Warmer" lunch at the RSA. We can still take another ten people so if you want to invite anyone please ring John Tucker contact details on the last page.

The Convenors met during July and were very positive about their groups. Some can still take additional members so have a look at the schedule and select another learning option, all good to keep the brain active. Ring the Convenor and go along for a test drive, no commitment required until you are sure.

I attended a U3A Network meeting Friday the 5th in Meadowbank. These meeting are to keep in touch with the other 25 groups in the Auckland area, South Kaipara having recently formed with 30 members. We are the 6th largest with 163 members and still growing. We did have 260 two years ago but many members now live in retirement villages who do provide many activities.

The Auckland U3A Celebration in August 30th at Netball North Harbour still has 70 seats available. Many have expressed difficulty in the registration method. I now have forms available so ring me if you would like to join us, we are carpooling, all other information is on the forms.

Mike King 2019 New Zealander of the Year is the keynote speaker speaking on "The Inner Critic" focusing on children and how we can help. Mini speakers are 9 in total with topics from " NZ History you were never taught at school," " Conduct Unbecoming," "Two German Inventors who changed the World" and "Summer School at Girton College, Cambridge". Lots of diversity, education and humour.

I am now in residence in my home after eleven months and enjoying it enormously especially seeing my old things again and matching new colours and furniture. One funny story: during a buying session online one Sunday night to take advantage of a sale, I ended up buying the same duvet cover twice and one being sent to a friend's house where I house sat in Palmerston North! The one returned happened to be at the discounted price of course and the one received cost $50 more! The company were very understanding when I said I was a Gold Card holder and I did get a refund.

The moral of the story is, if you are buying online complete the task before lunch.

News from the groups

Below are some updates about the groups:

Book Review: the group will soon include poetry discussion – just one short poem per week as a trial to see if Ian Miller’s idea of a short-term poetry reading group would work.

World Today is thriving with over 20 members. Most impressed by the recent presentations on Social Media, Islamophobia and the 2020 Cannabis Referendum.

Ancient History. This long running and very interesting oup needs more members!

“Civilisations” by Simon Shama and Mary Beard

Interesting snippet. Heard on Saturday Morning’s Kim Hill interview with Simon Shama was a mention of a television series called Civilisations. Not yet shown here yet (2018 production) but available on DVD.

Civilisations is a major nine-part series telling the story of art from the dawn of human history to the present day, for the first time on a global scale. It is now nearly half a century since Kenneth Clark’s series Civilisation thrilled audiences with its authoritative interpretation of the glories of Western art. Inspired by that ground-breaking programme, this new series of Civilisations introduces a new generation to the great masterworks of beauty, ingenuity and illumination created across the continents. It explores the visual culture of societies from around the globe, revealing alongside the magnificent objects made in the West the wealth of treasures created by other cultures, from the landscape scrolls of classical China and the sculpture of the Olmecs to African bronzes, Japanese prints and Mughal miniatures. Told by three presenters, each bringing their own skills and perspectives to the series – Simon Schama, Mary Beard and David Olusoga.
