Next Meeting

Monday, 18 November, 9.40 am,
at the Salvation Army Hall, 32 Greenview Lane,
Red Beach, Hibiscus Coast.
Tea duty: Short Film Group and History Group

From our president

What a brilliant speaker Sir Richard Faull was at our September meeting, in addition to being a very approachable and humble person, so passionate about the NZ Brain Institute that he founded.

I was delighted to see so many members and guests attending. We have gained 16 new members, a record for so late in the year

As mentioned below, another accomplishment was the final Convenors' meeting for 2019 held in October with a well-deserved afternoon tea to thank the life blood of our organisation. Every group was represented, and a positive atmosphere was felt by all.

Our final General Meeting for 2019 will be on November 18th when we will be enjoying a Christmas morning tea at 9.45. Please note the later start to enable setting up. We will allow 45 minutes then start the meeting at 10.30.

I have spoken to Dr John Reynolds to be a speaker for this meeting. He comes very highly recommended by Browns Bay U3A. His bio is enclosed so please join us for this inspiring and enjoyable time together.

Before we meet again in 2020, there will be a very special event to celebrate and NO we are not having Santa attending! So, come along and share together.

I will finish by thanking the Management team without whom I could not function, the Convenors without whom there would be no U3A Hibiscus Coast and our technical team who are always so professional, the helpers at the General Meeting without whom there would be no morning tea and YOU the members for your encouragement and participation. It is always appreciated.

I wish you and your families all the joy of the season and a peaceful, healthy and prosperous New Year.

Trish Litherland
President

News from the groups

A well-earned afternoon tea for the conveners

At the Conveners' meeting on 21 October, a well-attended event (27) with a fancy afternoon tea, we evaluated the groups. What is going well? What are some of the challenges?

Conveners and members were universally enthusiastic about their groups. Keywords were companionship, humour, learning, intellectual stimulation, participation and creativity. Challenges were "natural attrition", finding the right venue ... and "we want the Out and About group back".

Conveners of Mah Jong and Cards and Games mentioned setting rules. Geoff of Mah Jong said his "bible" was "The Hoyles Book of Cards and Games".

Two of the biggest groups are Discussion and World Today which both have over 20 members. The History Group is very busy with many members giving well researched presentations.

Regional New Zealand

Our members are looking forward to our Christmas end of year “party”. This year, the date being 28th November, we will start one hour later at 11 am and finish some time in the afternoon. Next year we plan to change – perhaps Australia or Oceania. Watch this space. All our team members join with me in wishing you a happy time this Christmas. Our next meeting will be held as usual in the library On 23rd January 2020! You are most welcome to join us for our first meeting of the year.

Archaeology group

The new Archaeology group is increasing in size, but we still have room for a few more as we are now meeting in the Pohutukawa room at the Whangaparaoa library. We covered several sites in the world in the last session, from Israel to Peru to England to Cambodia. Already we have discovered that archaeology raises more questions than answers, but it is all extremely interesting and thought-provoking. Next session will be on Wednesday 20th Nov at 2.30p.m.

What's the Rush?

(A Xmas ditty by Kaye Bennetts of the Writers Group)

November at the local mall, the music's very loud.

Do they really think that Christmas music will attract a crowd?

Shop windows trimmed with tinsel, fake trees in every one.

Then, as soon as New Year's over ... it's hello to Hot Cross Buns!
